"All night the hoary meteor fell"

Foreword

Our Senior Annual was christened in 1922 when it replaced the senior issue of The World, our literary magazine. The sponsors agreed upon a compilation of the first syllables of the words, Central High School Senior Annual, thus forming the word, Cehisean. Since that eventful year, The Cehisean has been published annually by the senior class. To aid in recalling happy events and to supply pictures for memory's wall, the staff of the 1940 Cehisean presents this book and bids you read.

may all your best wishes come true. Gertrude C. Borden

Dedication

We have come a long way since the days when the colonial schoolmaster stood before his class threatening the laggards and mischief makers with a dunce cap and a willow switch. Unlike the dictator of old, the teacher of today is the helpful guide and friend of her students. It is in this role that we think of our class advisor, Miss Gertrude Borden. We are truly grateful for her untiring efforts to help us with our problems, and to her we affecionately dedicate the Cehisean of 1940.

Americans like to think in terms of catch phrases or slogans. The business world is largely dominated by these pithy forms of expression as, "Say it with Flowers"; "See America First";' 'Don't Write, Telegraph."

Educational thinking has not escaped. Here are a few shining examples: "Learn to do by doing"; "Learning is based on activity"; "Education must be a cooperative effort"; "Introduce life situations into the classroom"; "Motivate the school program."

Most of these slogans are good in their philosophy if and when we learn how to apply them.

One of the best types of application we have been able to make to date is found in the editing and publishing of the Cehisean. Here a class activity, properly carried on, has high educational value. This is the one consideration which tends to over-balance some of the criticisms which may be raised, from time to time, against a class annual.

If our slogans lose their validity, the publication of the Cehisean should cease.

Faculty and Classroom

Mr. Albert G. Meier, our assistant principal, has the difficult task of adjusting the courses in the curriculum to accommodate the 1,800 students of Central. Students who have learned to work efficiently as well as those who find adjustment difficult receive helpful advice from Mr. Meier.

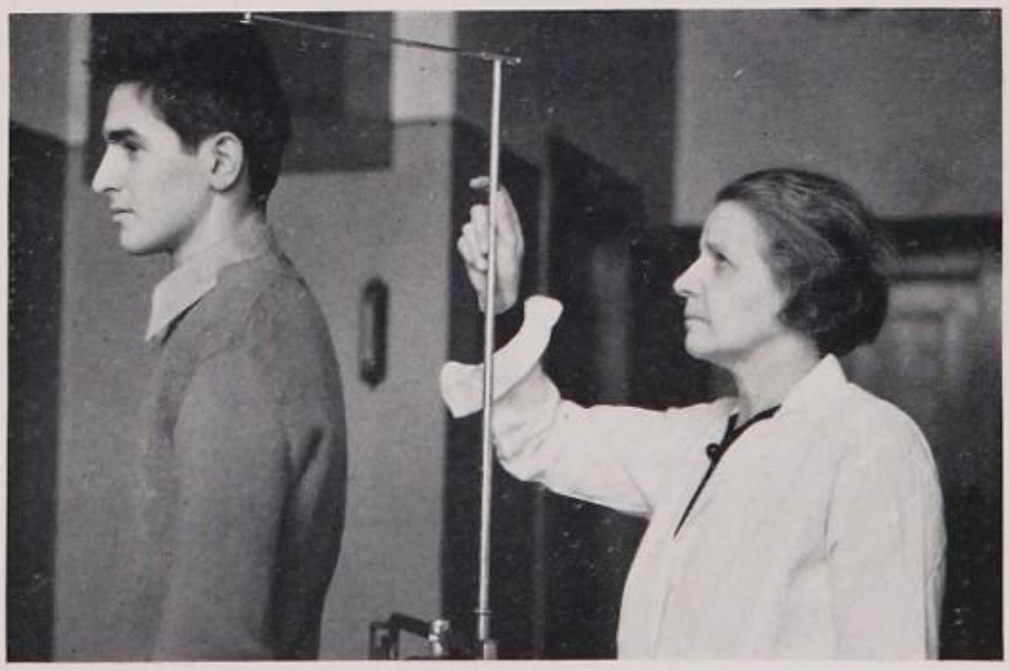
Miss Minnie Keane, registrar at Central, has welcomed students from the four corners of the earth and taken them into the fold. She has directed many a senior on the right road to graduation, and Central alumni think of her as a true friend.

Miss Bryant is one of the busiest people at Central. In addition to her duties as dean of girls, she organizes and sponsors the sophomore class, has charge of the State and Federal Aid in the school, is an advisor of the Student Council and of the Girls' League.

Pleasant and capable are Miss Clausen and Miss Morsing who are responsible for the efficiency of the office. In addition to checking attendance and eligibility records, they maintain files and prepare school bulletins.

Mr. Varner, who presides over the Personnel Department, is the Dr. I. Q. of Central. He not only prescribes for present ills but gives sound advice for the future welfare of students.

Miss Ruth Colberg is our capable school nurse who determines when a headache is not a headache. No student who has been absent for illness is readmitted to class without her O. K.



Mrs. Johnson calls the attention to a problem of engraving.

Mr. Andersen balancing accounts.

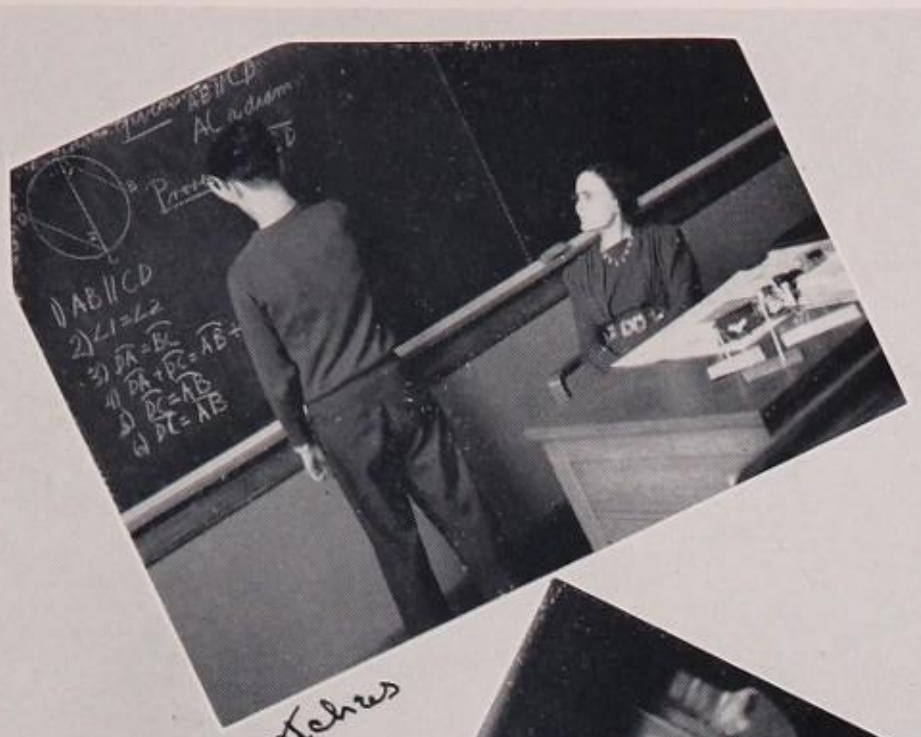
Miss Paro discusses Pinocchio pictures with Pinocchio.

Mrs. Damon reading modern poetry to her English class.

Miss Baumgart planning a World subscription campaign.

Coach Riordon going over some of the statistics in physiography.

Miss Meidl points out the sections of the cranium.

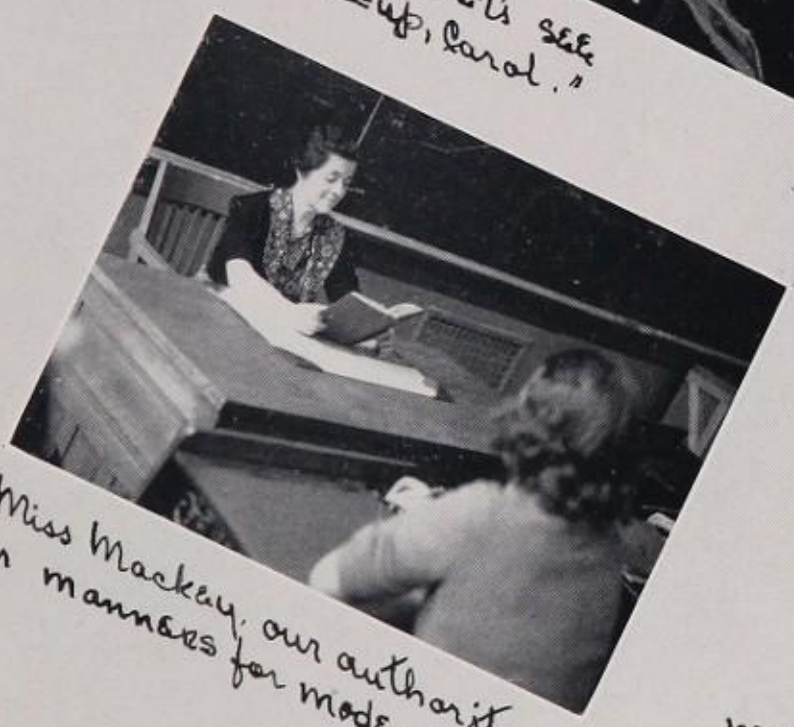


Miss Hayd watches a student's efforts to prove a problem in geometry.

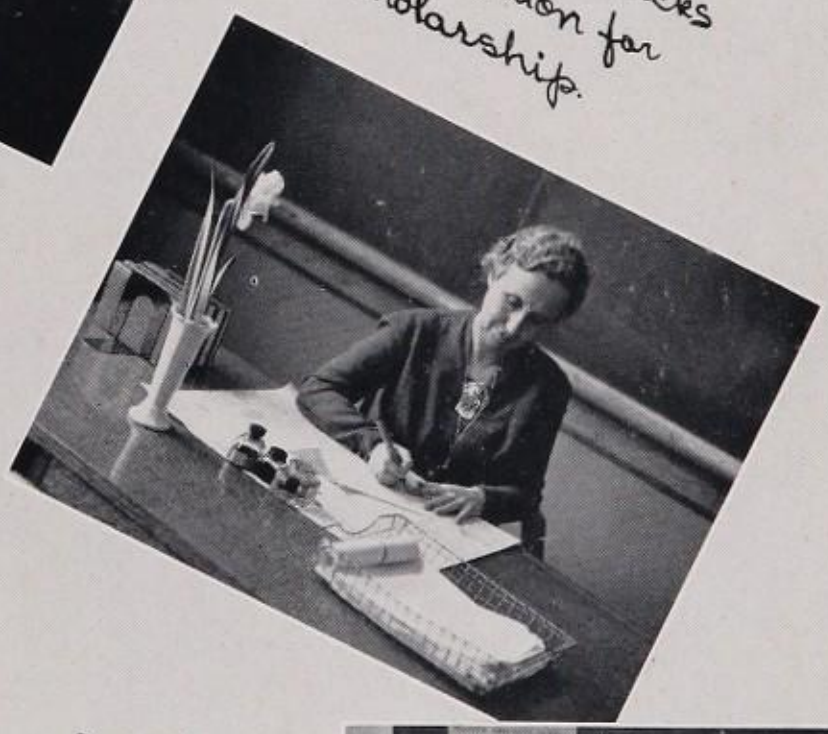
Mr. Schwabe regards a student's work with an appraising eye.

Miss Allen: "Let's see your make-up, Carol."

Miss Watson checks an application for a scholarship.



Miss Mackay, our authority in manners for moderns.



Miss Babcan is pleased with a translation from Virgil.

Miss Munson: "This is a good report, Sally."

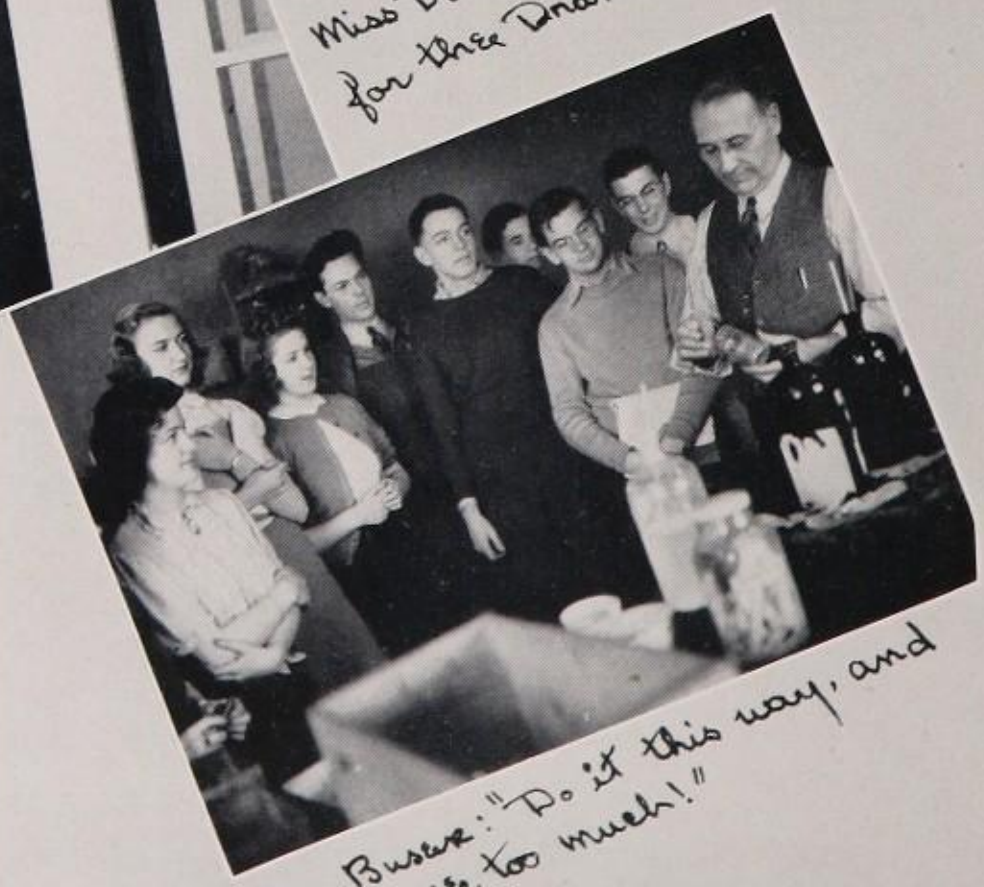
Coach Read takes time out from football to help a student.

Mr. Harnsburger - "The smith, a mighty man is he."

Miss McTetridge between her two interests, plants and her class.

Miss Dornberg selects scenery for the Dramatic Club play.

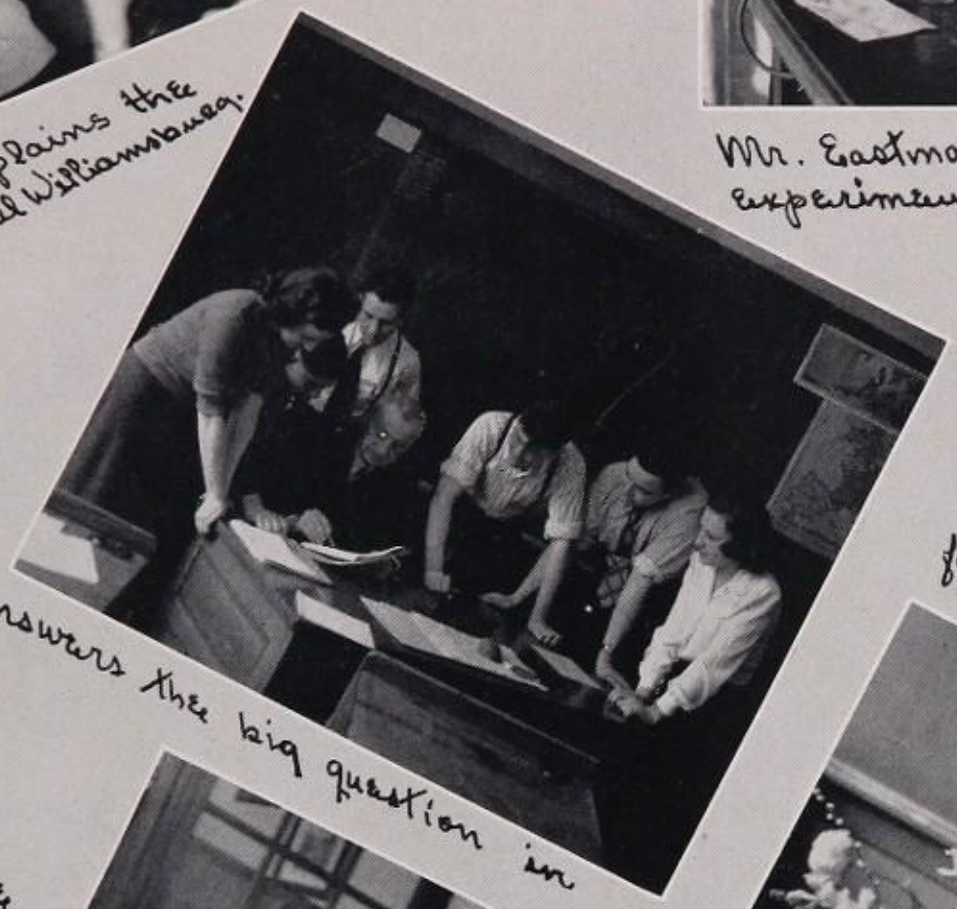
Mr. Brockman: "All's well and in safe condition."



Mr. Busser: "Do it this way, and don't use too much!"

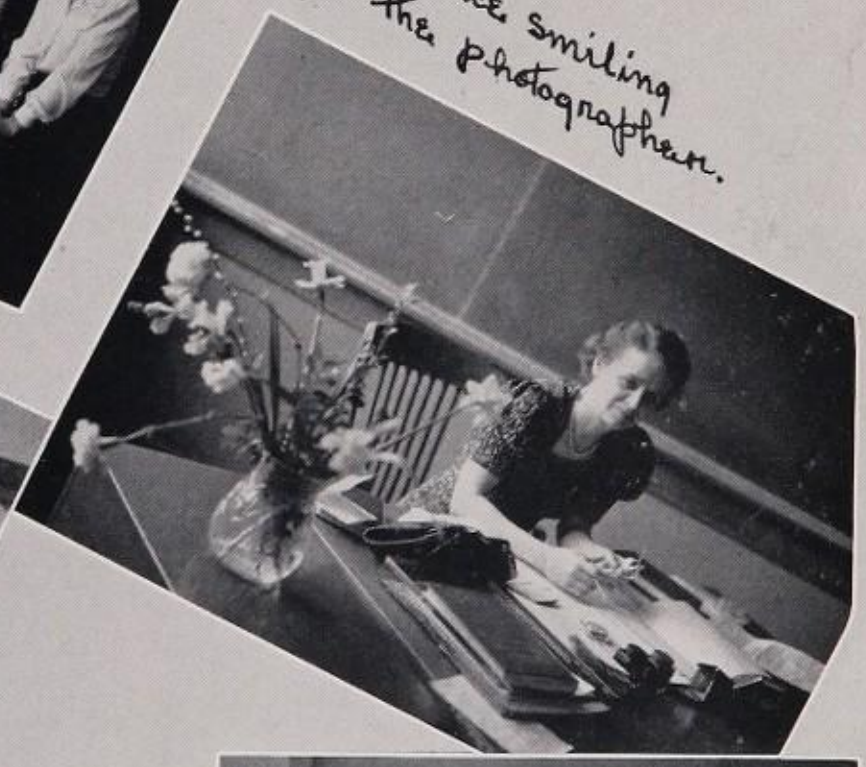
Miss Miles explains the layout of colonial Williamsburg.

Mr. Eastman explains Physic experiment number 21.

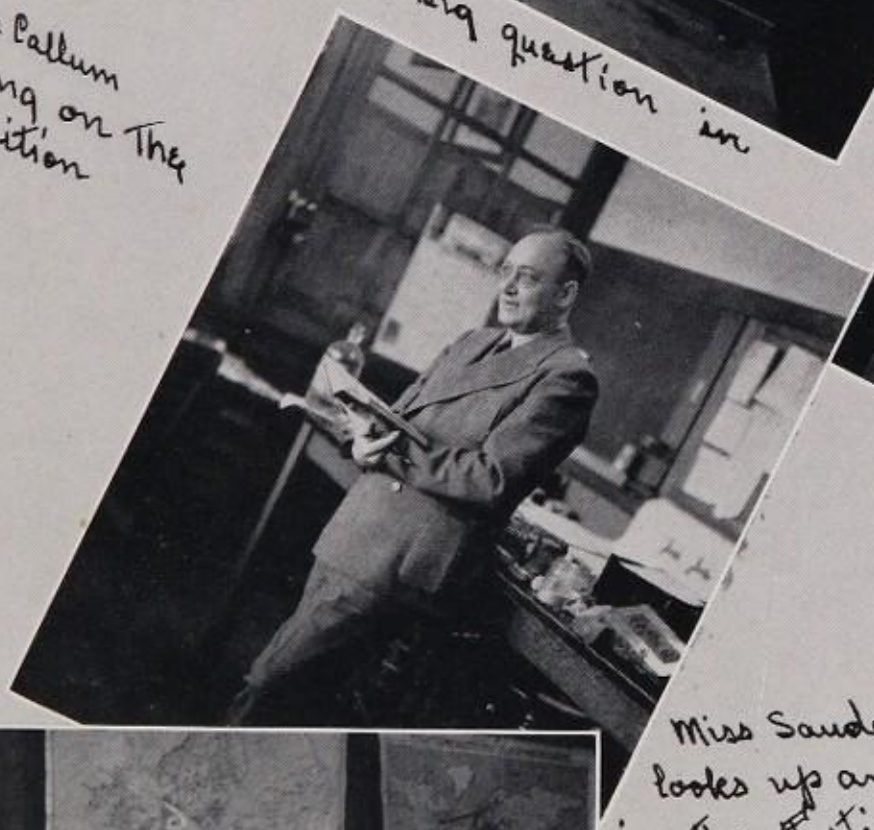


Mr. Meltzer answers the big question in the minds of his students.

Mr. McCallum lecturing on the composition of rock.



Mrs. Price smiling for the photographer.



Miss Sanderson looks up an I.Q. in the Testing Bureau files.

Miss Foulke approves the work of her sophomores.

Edith Foulke

Mr. Watson:
"Absent or not absent—
that is the question."

Mr. Berg examining a machine.

Miss Johnson cheerfully selects reference material for a student.

Miss Ryan checks up on her F. a. a. girls.

Mr. Bush is ready for an oral quiz
in Chemistry.

Miss Cochran getting a perspective of the World.

Mr. Galles gets his notices and prepares happily to go to class.

Sophomores

The newly organized class of 1942 is beginning its first term at Central with approximately five hundred first and second term sophomores. The majority of the class members came from Maria Sanford Junior High School. They are led by Norman Trout, president; Isabelle Culligan, vice-president; and Alice Brown, secretary. These three officers were chosen by popular vote of the sophomores. The office of treasurer is filled by Roland Thompson, who was appointed by the newly-elected officers and Miss Mary Bryant, the temporary advisor.

Class committees were named for the spring term with the following sophomores acting as chairmen: Marilyn Moorman, card file; Marjorie Ramer, poster; and Margaret Holden, finance. Under such leadership and guidance the class of 1942 is off to set a record.

THE CARD FILE AND FINANCE COMMITTEE AT WORK

Junior Class Officers

First row: David York, Frances Goff, Bill Olson, Mary Louise Thompson, Ned Powell.

Second row: Nancy Wright, Barbara Bean.

Last September, under the watchful guidance of Miss Alice Rosenberg, the class of 1941 started its junior year. The officers of their choice for the first term were: president, Nancy Wright; vice-president, Ned Powell; secretary, Barbara Bean. The treasurer, chosen by the executive board, was David York.

Early in the spring plans were begun for the outstanding social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. Ned Powell took over the duties of general chairman. The grand march was led by the president of the new term, Bill Olson. Other officers were: vice-president, Frances Goff; secretary, Mary Louise Thompson. Because of his exceptional efficiency, David York was again made treasurer. Next year the class of 1941 will assume the responsibilities of seniors.

THE JUNIOR CLASS COLLECTS THE CLASS DUES

Senior Class Officers

First row: Virginia Pedersen, Shirley De Freece, Stanton Hirsh, Melvin Mark, Don Conway.

Second row: Claire Adamson, Carol Macoubrey.

Seniors

The class of 1940 entered Central's halls in the fall of 1937. The first officers to head this class were Norman Braun, president; Marjorie Brack, vice-president; Evelyn Storberg, secretary. The executive committee appointed Edith Rowley treasurer. The class was under the supervision of Miss Mary Bryant until Miss Gertrude Borden became their advisor in the spring. During this term Jessie Dudley was elected president; Barbara Hagerman, vice-president; Marcia Correll, secretary; John Greenman, treasurer.

In the Junior year Marjorie Brack headed the class as president with Evelyn Storberg, vice-president; Marie Levie, secretary; and Raymond Jacobson, treasurer. This year the class made plans for the all-important Junior-Senior Prom with John Barton as chairman. During the spring term the officers were Robert Tarbox, president; Jessie Dudley, vice-president; Barbara Mills, secretary; and Barton Levy, treasurer.

In September, 1939, the class returned as Seniors for their last year at Central. William Whitney was president; Carol Macoubrey, vice-president; Claire Adamson, secretary; and Melvin Mark was chosen treasurer. Don Conway was elected president for the final and most important semester. To aid him Shirley De Freece was chosen vice-president; Virginia Pedersen became secretary with Stanton Hirsh as treasurer.

How can we forget the awful periods we spent in 116? Loads of luck, Mary.

In Memoriam

"Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away."

MR. FREDERICK C. MILLER

In December, 1939, came the news of the death of Mr. Frederick C. Miller, former teacher of physiography and one of the best known personalities at Central. During the World War Mr. Miller originated the flag raising ceremony. The bugle call and the students standing at attention while the flag was being raised formed a picture which alumni remember and regard a fitting memorial to Mr. Miller.

Orchestra and String Ensemble

Those who hear the orchestra's daily tune-up are pleasantly surprised when it begins rehearsal under the direction of Miss Lillian Knott, its able conductor. Then the discord changes to harmony, and melodies by Bach, Beethoven, and Mozart issue forth. The orchestra meets four days each week, and each member works seriously to get the desired results.

From the personnel of the Orchestra, Miss Knott selects a small group of string players who comprise the Central String Ensemble. This group has performed for many programs both in and out of school. It has played for the Schubert Club of St. Paul, and it has also provided dinner music for various banquets including the Central National Honor Society initiation banquet. This year this group is made up of Vivian Overn and Arthur Kaufman, first violinists, Sherman Pleplar, Ruth Koempel, and Irene Hasenzahl, second violinists, Charlotte Robertson, cellist, Kathleen Gripentrog, bass violinist, and Joanadelle Johnson, pianist.

The Orchestra's officers for the first term this past year were Vivian Overn, president; Stephen Dunning, vice-president; Pasquale Briglia, secretary; and Sherman Pleplar, treasurer. Heading the orchestra the second semester are president, Sherman Pleplar; vice-president, Irene Hazenzahl; secretary, Betty Jane Smith; and treasurer, James Jacobson.

Choir

The Central High School Choir, also known as the advanced chorus class, is an active organization in the school. Every chorus student aims to become a member of this group which is composed of the finest voices in the school. Miss Lillian Knott, the director of the choir, chooses the members who show the talent and the spirit needed for its success. This organization is an a capella choir, and its repertoire consists mainly of choral compositions written for four to eight parts.

Twenty-five members of the choir were selected to represent Central in the mass chorus of two hundred fifty which sang for the Minnesota Educational Association in November. Two rehearsals were held at Mechanic Arts High School prior to their participation.

Following this performance, preparations were begun for an assembly. Various selections from the operettas, "The Mikado" and "H. M. S. Pinafore," were presented. These well known melodies provided one of the most entertaining assemblies of the year.

Twice this year the choir sang in church programs. In December, the choir provided a group of numbers at the Faith Lutheran Brotherhood meeting and in March took part in a Lenten service at the Church of the Reformation.

Third row: Jean Sinclair, Majel Rundquist, Ralph Johansen, pres., Sam Sultan, Shirley Carlson, Anita Shifflett, Howard Huelster, Douglas Perrin, Fred Dreher, Bobb M. Doherty, Leo Wallace, Jean Sudor, Arline Peterson, Ross Parsons, Connie Rosenthal, Alice Roels.

The Christmas season proved to be a busy one for the organization. To arouse the Christmas spirit carols were sung in the halls. Several members of the group took part in the annual Christmas assembly. The choir presented their annual candle light Christmas concert, assisted by Leona Schuneman and Herman Straka, as soloists.

The January meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association was favored with several selections. Initiation parties were held each term to welcome the new members. That of the first semester was held in the school auditorium. The choir follows their usual custom of singing for Commencement in June.

The choir numbers approximately sixty-five members, headed for the first term by Douglas Perrin, president; Joanadelle Johnson, vice-president; Evelyn Storberg, secretary; and Ernest Hornback, treasurer.

The second term officers were Ralph Johansen, president; Virginia Pedersen, vice-president; Joanadelle Johnson, secretary; and Bob Sorem, treasurer.

What would school life at Central be without a band? This is the group that bolsters school spirit, gives new life to weary athletes, and puts our school on the map.

The band, under the direction of Franklin L. Blume, busied itself in the fall of the 1939-40 school year performing at the football games. Spirited marches by Sousa and Goldman played by musicians in bright new uniforms did much to put school color into our football stadium. The basketball season also saw this group at the armory.

The beginning of 1940 found the band giving its annual assembly. Highlights of the program were an overture, "Orpheus in der Unterwelt," a baritone solo, "In the Old Home Down on the Farm," played by Harold Martens, Victor Herbert favorites, and several snappy marches together with the exquisite singing of such Central stars as Shirley Till, Phyllis Karow, and Marvin Moran. The most outstanding feature of the performance was that Mr. Blume was able to sit back and see his band perform under student directors, a new trend in the musical education of Central. Student directors for the performance were Nancy Wright, Barbara De Geer, Fred Manthey, Raymond Jacobson, Stuart Steinman, Richard Nielson, Joanadelle Johnson, Lyle Cohler, and Rodney Fickle.

In January the group marched for Central in the school parade of the St. Paul Winter Carnival.

In February, after appearing at the Wendell Philips Junior High School in Minneapolis and for the P. T. A. of Central, the group settled back to work on its fourteenth annual band concert.

Third row: Ralph Wassmann, Dick Nielsen, Marian Salmen, Lyle W. Cohler, bus. mgr., quartermaster, Arthur M. Madsen, treas., 1 & 2, Hillard Brown, Fred Thiers, Dale Armstrong, Stuart Steinman, Rodney Fickle, Vernon Johnson, quartermaster, Paul Ethier, librarian 2, Harold Kristal, Marvin Belkin, Richard Dauffenbach, vice-pres. 2, Julian Rattet, Arnold Resnick, Arthur Salkin, Louise Anderson.
Fourth row: Mr. Franklin Blume, dir., Lester Silverman, Don Anderson, Forbes Fuller, Fred Claassen, Maurice Burns, Harold Martens, asst. quartermaster, Joanadelle Johnson, Harriet Wettergren, Jayne Jeffrey, Lee Lewis, Don Loeffler, Bill Debus, Knute Stalland.

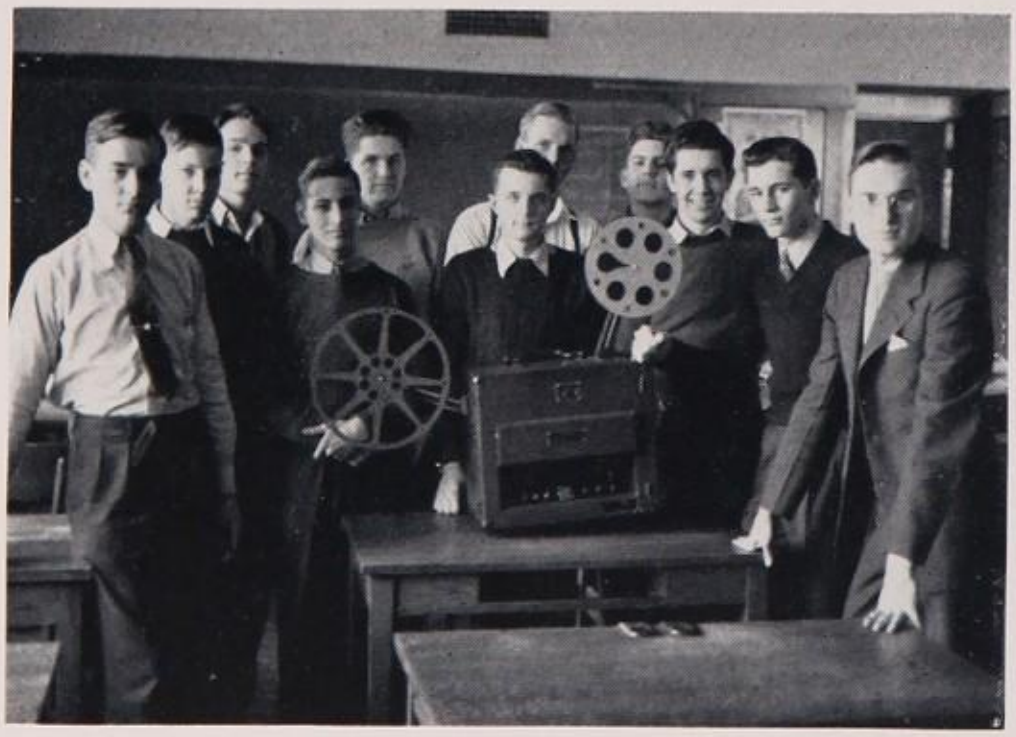
The Band boasted as its head drum majorette June Hensel, who had as her assistants, Marilyn Druck, Phyllis Tayler, Marcella Foster, and Jo Ann Jensen. From a twelve week drum majorette class of fifty, Mr. Blume selected the three best twirlers, Lota Ahrens, Patricia Ross, and Janice Bodine, who joined Central's veteran majorettes in the spring semester.

Raymond Jacobson headed the group as president in the fall semester with Fred Manthey assisting as vice president, and Arthur Madsen and Barbara De Geer filling the posts of treasurer and secretary respectively. The spring semester brought forth Fred Manthey as the new head executive with Richard Dauffenbach as vice president, June Hensel as secretary, and Arthur Madsen as treasurer. The business manager in the fall was Todd Paulus, while Lyle Cohler served in that post in the spring.

The pep band led by Raymond Jacobson, together with Central's cheerleaders, did much to build up school spirit at critical periods in the school's athletics. It consisted of about ten pieces including: sousaphone, baritone, trombone, clarinet, trumpet, and piccolo instruments, together with the drums.

The year's activities were climaxed on May 9th and 10th with the presentation of the fourteenth annual band concert which was a complete success.

FUTURE KRUPAS



Dear Mary –

I'm really sorry that you are leaving this institute but I suppose you're happy about the whole thing (:) You've been a swell pal but I wish I could have gotten To know you better. Loads of luck and happiness (ahem) in the future.

Roumaine Sprain '40

P. S. This is your dear cousin's pen and it's awful to write with so you will have To excuse the writing. Letter with her later.

Fourth row: Ned Powell, Bill Norton, James McNamara, Bill Dillon, Raymond Jacobson, Art Carlson, Herb Lee Gurnee, Wallace Hanson.

Student Council

Like all large bodies of people, Central has its governing body, which is known as the Student Council. Every term a representative is chosen by each home room and from these representatives, the inner-council is picked. The officers of this council are voted on by the school at large, and thus elected to the responsibility of governing the students of Central.

To do their work, the representatives are appointed to various committees such as archives, bookstore, publicity, sunlites, and school improvement. Besides the work done on these committees, the Student Council sponsors the traffic court and carries on one special project each year. This year they devoted most of their time and money to finishing up last year's project, a moving picture machine to be used for assemblies and special meetings in the school. The remaining time will be spent procuring a new flag and flag stand.

The officers who were elected for the year are Don Meisel, president; John Barton, vice-president; Marge Brack, secretary; and Bill O'Brien, treasurer.

Student Council Court

One of the most important projects which the Student Council has undertaken is the Traffic Court which for four years has been judging student law breakers. The Student Council Court tries and sentences persons found violating any of the sixteen Student Council ordinances. Traffic officers report the offenders, and the accused must stand a regular court session. A sentence consists of a fine, writing the Student Council ordinances, or an extra period of school. After the case has been brought before the court, Chief Justice Robert Tarbox and the four associate Justices, namely, Melvin Mark, Roger Grohs, Marion English, and Charlotte Robertson, decide the case and pass sentence. Other officers of the court are John Kampmyer, clerk; Helen Thomas, secretary; and Muriel Gode, court reporter. Donald Daggett was the prosecuting attorney, and Miss Sjoberg was the very excellent advisor of the Student Council Court this year.

Traffic Squad

Under the direction of Mr. A. C. Anderson, the Traffic Squad of Central promotes and maintains reasonable order in the school building and about the campus. The squad regulates traffic in the halls and on the stairs of the building and supervises the parking lot. Most of its work is determined by Student Council ordinances which it enforces. After being apprehended, lawbreakers are given notice to appear before the Student Council Court where their case is heard and sentence imposed. Officers for this year were: Don Daggett, captain; Dick Harholdt and Bob Slocum, lieutenants; and Dick DeLeo, Bob Plum, Leroy Bruflat and Bob Trussell, sergeants. The position of sergeant is new to the squad and was created mainly to improve the organization within itself.

Honor Societies

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest degree of merit a student can achieve in Central. Its qualifications are scholarship, leadership, service, and character. As its name indicates, the organization is national. It is in reality a Phi Beta Kappa for high schools.

The society was organized at Central in 1925. It is under the direction of Miss Edith Haigh, and five faculty members, Miss Gertrude Borden, Miss Alice Rosenberg, Mr. William Bush, Miss Anna Dickson, and Mr. Lewis Harnsburger.

In addition to the requirements mentioned above, the student must be in the upper third of his class. Not more than 15 per cent of the senior class and 5 per cent of the junior class may be chosen.

The Grace N. Elliot chapter of Quill and Scroll was established in Central in 1931. It is composed of members selected from the staff of workers of the "Times," the "World," and the "Cehisean." Three qualifications are necessary. First, one must be in the upper third of his class scholastically, he must have recognition from the advisor, and lastly, he must submit samples of original work.

This group at Central is under the leadership of Miss Olive Allen.

This year the officers for Quill and Scroll were Mary Helen Horan, president; Gage Colby, vice-president; Sally Sjoselius, secretary; and Geraldine Makiesky, treasurer.

Scholars All

Composed of the cream of Central's scholars, the Historical Society is unique in its purpose. It records the history of the school. In its files may be found a record of every Central graduate, every one of the school publications and miscellaneous mementos of almost all school affairs.

Membership is open only to those maintaining superior scholastic averages and election is made from outstanding sophomores and juniors.

The club is not to be found lacking in entertainment, for its annual Carnival is an event long awaited by its members. The initiation is a very interesting and solemn ritual, and each prospective member takes an oath and signs the constitution. The club's able advisors are Miss Claire Boody and Miss Ellen Simon.

The officers of this organization elected for the year are: Raymond Jacobson, president; Otto Meeker, vice-president; Mary Louise Townsend, corresponding secretary; Charlotte Robertson, recording secretary; and Ned Powell, treasurer.

Each year those students who have maintained at least an A average in all their studies while sophomores are awarded the Sophomore Honor Medal. The Student Council makes the presentation in a special school assembly. This year one boy and seven girls received such medals for their exceptional scholarship. They are: Edmund Powell, Elizabeth Ringius, Esther Reizman, Marjorie Dawson, Helen Thomas, Rosemary Thorndyke, Mary Louise Blanchette, Jeanne Hadd.

The Times

A murmur of excitement permeates our halls! The TIMES is ours with all the hot news and gossip. Teachers struggling in vain with uninterested classes, finally give up and read the TIMES themselves.

On the serious side, the TIMES is a truly great high school paper. Edited entirely by students under the advisorship of Miss Olive Allen, it has managed to reach the top in national ratings, winning annually such honors as Columbian Medalist Award, All-Columbian Newspaper, International rating from Quill and Scroll, and an All-American newspaper rating from N. S. P. A.

During the fall term Sally Sjoselius and Mary Frances Gurney were co-editors. With them worked Evelyn Storberg as news editor, Babs Mills as feature editor, Carol Macoubrey as club editor, Jimmy Leaon as boys' sports editor, and Mary Beyrer as girls' sports editor.

Carol Macoubrey was appointed the new editor-in-chief by last term's co-editors with the aid of Miss Allen, who then helped her choose her staff. Beverly Berkovitz is news editor, Geraldine Makiesky, feature editor, Otto Meeker, boys' sports, and Mary Beyrer, girls' sports editor.

The business department, advised by Mr. A. C. Anderson, had Sigurd Dahlquist as its manager both terms.

Fourth row: Don Shannon, Clinton Sprain, John Greenman, Arthur Madsen, Edward Schmidt, Hyam Segell, Melvin Mark, Herb Lee Gurnee, Warner Ogden, Barton Levy.

Cehisean

Along with the "Times" and the "World," the school annual known as the "Cehisean" takes its place as one of the three literary publications of Central. Mrs. Amanda Johnson, newly appointed literary advisor, guided the various department editors in completing their work.

Writeups were turned in, sections planned, and pictures taken as Robert Tarbox, editor-in-chief, supervised the make-up of the book. Helping him were Evelyn Storberg, associate editor, Dick Ruhme, art editor, Jeanette Budden, school editor Mary Louise Townsend, album editor, Jessie Dudley, club editor, Dave Morris, sports editor, Mary Beyrer, girls' sports editor, Janet Hohman, music editor, and Stan Loeffler, staff photographer.

The business staff advised by Miss Althea Diether was responsible for securing subscriptions and advertising to cover the cost of publishing the book. Louis Nelson, business manager, and Roger Grohs and Bill Chatterton, assistant business managers, were always on hand to attend to the financial matters.

Under the direction of Miss Minnette Paro, art advisor, the art editor, Dick Ruhme, planned the book theme, colonial silhouettes. His efficient helpers were Harriet Johnson, Marjorie Neff, Dick Hansen, Charles Schulz, Mary Irwin and Phoebe Balch.

Literary Club

Members of this select group are chosen for their literary abilities from annual tryouts held in September. Any student is eligible for tryouts and is required to submit either a poem, short story, or essay. Group advisor is Miss Grace Cochran.

Elections are held twice a year, and the officers for the present term are: Gage Colby, president; Mavajean Simpson, vice-president; Evelyn Storberg, secretary; and Larry Ryan, treasurer. Last term's officers were: Gage Colby, president; Walter Whitney, vice-president; Evelyn Storberg, secretary; and Mavajean Simpson, treasurer.

The main project undertaken by the club is the publishing of the "World." Under the advisors, Miss Grace Cochran, Miss Elizabeth Stroble, and Miss Dorothey Baumgart, the "World" combines the literary and artistic talents of the school. Editors of this year's publications are Sally Sjoselius, editor-in-chief; Mary Frances Gurney, associate editor; Marjorie Simons, art editor; Stanton Hirsh, editorial editor; Ray Jacobson, short story editor; Phyllis Raske, critical essay editor; Walter Whitney, informal essay editor; Bill Olson, feature editor; and Larry Ryan, poetry editor.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club has as its main objective the promotion of a friendly attitude toward other nations. During the first semester of the year, the club centered its interest around Mexico, and several speakers, including Dr. Wallace Robbins of Unity Church, and Mr. Zamora of the Neighborhood House, were guests. At that time, Stanton Hirsh was president of the club, Fred Manthey was vice-president, Violet Olsen was secretary, and Ed Schmidt was treasurer.

The club's second semester program was based upon the discussion of peace plans following the present European war. Officers during this semester were: Howard Guthmann, president; Ed Schmidt, vice-president; Crystal Burgess, secretary; and John Stumpf, treasurer.

The club is under the direction of Miss Lou Ella Miles, who has been instrumental in helping the club to achieve its great success.

Latin Club and German Club

To form a better understanding of Roman ways of living and customs is the purpose of the Latin Club.

The outstanding event of the year is the annual Roman banquet in the spring, where the members come dressed as Romans. Another of the more important programs this year was the style show of the gods given before Christmas through the efforts and able direction of the club's advisor, Miss Florence Baber.

Officers for the first semester were: Hyam Segell, president; Carolyn Rush, vice-president; Margaret Herzog, secretary; and Carol McGuire, treasurer. Second term officers were: Hyam Segell, president; Carol Kuehn, vice-president; Joan Strom, secretary; and Lauren Lundberg, treasurer.

The objectives of the German Club are to create a deeper interest in the study of German and to acquire a fuller knowledge of the German people.

Movies of Germany are included in several of the programs throughout the year. A Christmas party is held usually at the home of the advisor, Miss Nellie Muller. Social events culminate with a banquet in May when each member contributes to the program.

Officers for the first term were: Ray Jacobson, president; Arvilla Deutschlander, vice-president; Marie Dominquez, secretary; and Carl Haas, treasurer. For the spring term Louis Lick headed the club with Charlotte Robertson, Dorothy Madsen, and Harry Ogden in their respective offices.

Chemistry Club

Made up of pupils in the chemistry classes, this club aspires to give its members a greater interest and knowledge of science. Standing committees for the year are appointed including one to arrange for programs. They are free to call on any member to participate. This usually consists of preparing and reading a paper before the club on a subject pertaining to chemistry.

Speakers are also secured by this committee. Dr. Perry Moore of Hamline University and Dr. Richard Jones of Macalester have helped to promote this interest. Other activities of the club consist of experiments, movies, industrial, excursions, and the annual pow-wow. This year it was held at Thompson Park.

The members of this club meet twice a month under the leadership of Virginia Pedersen, president; Nora Eastman, vice-president; and Mary Cox, secretary-treasurer. Mr. William Bush is advising the club for the sixth year.

Third row: Virginia Kurtz, Byron Harrell, Elmer Toensing, Dick Filburn, Gage Colby, Paul Melancon, Elaine Sullivan.

Bird Club

The ornithologists of Central have their own organization, the Bird Club. The membership is open to all students who have had the spring term of biology or its equivalent and who have qualified in the tryouts. The number is limited to twenty-five. Tryouts are given at the beginning of each semester to test the aspirants' knowledge of birds. The purpose of this club is to learn about birds, and to study their habits from observation. Papers on birds are prepared and read, and a chart is kept on which the member puts his name and the date on which he first saw the bird. Regular meetings and social events are held under the guidance of Miss Irma Meili. Spring and fall excursions are taken by the club. Special features in the club's program were motion pictures, trips to museums, and lectures.

The officers for the year are: William Longley, president; Mary Louise Townsend, secretary; Dave Gustafson, treasurer.

Third row: Vivian Overn, Katherine Haas, Conrad Dankowski, Robert Berg, Audrey La Favor, Phyllis Aasgaard.

Art Clubs

To promote interest in art work and to improve the abilities of the members, is the two-fold purpose of the Thumb Tacks Club. Included on the list of varied activities of the club are the making of posters for other school groups, arranging special exhibits for the student body and doing all the art work for the "Cehisean." Officers for the year were Wallace Hanson, big tack; Phoebe Balch, tacks keeper; and Harriet Johnson, penholder. Miss Minnette Paro is the group's advisor.

"Art for art's sake" might well be the motto of the Triads. They are responsible for the Christmas paper and the pen and ink sketches and linoleum cuts used for the art work in the "World," Central's annual literary magazine. They also supply the cuts for the Christmas edition of the "Times."

The club is now fourteen years old, and its purpose remains as appreciation of art and development of skill in its various forms.

Miss Elizabeth Stroble is their advisor. Officers for the fall term were: Jean Youngdale, president; Joanadelle Johnson, vice-president; Alice Munson, secretary; and Dorothy Schroeder, treasurer. Officers for the present term are: Robert Berg, president; Conrad Dankowski, vice-president; John Murray, secretary; and Jean Youngdale, treasurer.

Thespians

Sixty Romeos and Juliets make up the Central High School Dramatic Club. Their dramatic talent is displayed at the club meetings, in assemblies, and every second year to the public in a three-act play. Tryouts for the club are held every fall, and the quaking hopefuls give a dramatic reading and a pantomime before five members of the club and the advisor, Miss Marjorie Dornberg.

The aim of the club is to develop the acting ability in its members by giving them opportunities to take part in skits and plays. In the spring the club has an annual picnic, and this year, together with the "Times" staff a big Christmas party was given in the "Times" room.

1940 being the year to present a play to the public, the club selected "Fly Away Home," the movie version of which was "Daughters Courageous."

The fall officers of the club were: Barbara Mills, president; Jo Ann Jensen, vice-president; Elaine Eide, secretary; and Jean Sudor, treasurer. This term's officers are: Jean Trout, president; Bill Olson, vice-president; Marjorie Brack, secretary; Barbara Bean, treasurer.

Third row: Grace Stewart, Betty Tomlinson, Carol McGuire, Irene Trester, Barbara Morrissey, Claire Adamson.

Fourth row: Jessie Dudley, Mariam Cowie, Doris Collins, Margery Popp, Marjorie Brack, Jean Trout, Mary Lou Sauer.

Paint and Patches

In order to make all assemblies, programs, and dramatizations more vivid and life-like, the Paint and Patches make-up club was organized sixteen years ago. This year, the club's greatest work was accomplished in making up for the Times Revue, the Band Concert, and the Dramatic Club play.

The club, under the direction of Miss Grace Mackey, is composed of members who wish to learn the art of make-up, the older members being known as "Paints" and the younger members as "Patches."

Meetings are held every other Tuesday, and demonstrations by the students or advisor are usually given. This year the members learned the negro, clown, Indian, age, pirate, and oriental types of make-up.

The officers chosen for a full year are Marcia Correll, president; Marie Levie, secretary; and Edith Rowley, treasurer.

Fourth row: Scott Ledy, Raymond Jacobson, Jim Ryberg, Philip Thuma, Al Reps, Bill Anderson, Jack MacNiven, Bud Miller.

Hi-Y's

Organized to "create, maintain and extend, throughout the school and community, the high standards of Christian character" is the purpose of the Hi-Y's at Central.

Tri-Central Hi-Y is the youngest of the Hi-Y's, for it was organized in 1936. The president of the fall term was John Barton, and Leigh Kamman was vice-president, with Clifford Polski as secretary, and Jack de Lambert, treasurer. The officers of the spring term were: Jack de Lambert, Leigh Kamman, Larry Ryan, and Otto Meeker, in their respective offices.

The Mid-Central chapter of the Hi-Y was organized six years ago. Following the usual custom various speakers talked to the group at the meetings. The office holders of the fall term were: Miles Wangensteen as president; Ned Powell as vice-president; Howard Schultz as secretary; and Donald Meisel as treasurer. Officers of the spring term were Howard Schultz as president; Robert Carter, vice-president; James McNamara, secretary; and Donald Conway, treasurer.

Central Hi-Y is the oldest of its kind in St. Paul, 1915 being the year of its organization. The club advocates educational and social programs. Robert Putman and Herbert Johnson are the advisors. The officers in the fall term were: president, William Whitney; vice-president, Herbert Gurnee; secretary, Joe Dixon; and treasurer, John Esslinger. Arthur Madsen presided over the spring term, assisted by vice-president Donald Allen, secretary William Kelly, and re-elected treasurer, John Esslinger.

These three Hi-Y's give three dances each year, sponsored by all of them, and the dances have met with remarkable success. Governed by the Hi-Y Council, composed of all the officers, which determines the joint policy of the clubs and the outside activities for each club, the groups have carried on many social and philanthropic projects. Organized by the Y. M. C. A., the clubs have done a great deal to help children in the underprivileged families through Christmas parties and other services.

Bowling Club

There is one sport in which a strike is good news. This sport is bowling; in fact, members of Central High Bowling Club wish they could get more of them. In this, the fourth year of its existence, the club is having one of its most successful seasons under Mr. M. D. Boyer's guiding hand.

Every Saturday morning interested students gather from all over the city to bowl at a downtown alley. Every high school in the city which has a bowling club is a member of the newly organized City High School League.

Central's representation is very enthusiastic and this club is one of the most popular of the school's activities. The officers elected for the year are Don Conway, president; Marie Levie, vice-president; Jean Trout, secretary; and Jack de Lambert, treasurer.

Dear Marie,
May you always have the best of luck and happiness.
Phil Kennedy.

Third row: Betty Tomlinson, Kitty Inman, Gordon Meeker, Donald Derauf, Patricia Stevens, Virginia Volkmeier.

Fourth row: Phil Grossman, Rohland Thomssen, Melvin Mark, Stanley Simon, Donald Koelln, Stephen Dunning, Don Miller.

Stamp Club

Composed of energetic philatelists, the Stamp Club has certainly fulfilled its purpose in increasing interest in stamp collecting. The end of each meeting is given over to trading and the exhibition of rare finds. Each member brings his stamps to the meetings. Under the able direction of Mr. Clarence Eastman, the advisor, the club has successfully staged a stamp auction and later a contest. It is open to any interested students who pass a qualifying examination. A fairly good knowledge of stamps is required.

Officers the first term were: Marguerite Montgomery, president; Bill Christy, vice-president; Audrey Carufel, secretary; and Bud Elvgren, treasurer. This term Bill Christy is president; Bud Elvgren, vice-president; Betty Tomlinson, secretary; and Marguerite Montgomery, treasurer.

Girl Reserves

The selling of Camp Cookies by the Girl Reserves, Campfire Girls, and Girl Scouts, was the main project of the Girl Reserves this year. Profits were divided among the three organizations, and the money for the Girl Reserves will go toward the Camp at Square Lake.

Headed by Mary Lou Sauer as president; Marcelle Lien, vice-president; Phyllis Rode, secretary; and Charlotte Seward, treasurer; the Girl Reserves completed this year's new committee system. The Cabinet members for the year were Gratia Howard, publicity; Jean Youngdale, dramatics; Betty Clymer, social; Margaret Carlson, service; Norma Peterson, program; Alice Munson, sports; and Helen Godske, friendship. New ideas and plans have been introduced by the club among which the safety council with the Hi-Y's under Mary Helen Horan has been very successful.

Mrs. Elfie Price is the enthusiastic advisor of the club.

Girls' League Council

Second row: Mary Hope, Joyce Raiter, Rosemary Baumhofer, Ruth Sleeger, Shirley de Freece.

Third row: Charlotte Robertson, Marjorie Brack, Carol Macoubrey, Janet Hohmann, Betty Buhler, Jean Sudor.

Girl's League

Under the guidance of Miss Mary Bryant, club advisor, the Girls' League has continued to function as one of the most successful and serviceable organizations at Central. The main purpose is to create a friendly atmosphere for the newcomer and help establish her in sociable surroundings.

Each year the club undertakes certain projects, among which are dressing dolls for the Santa Claus Club, selling Christmas Seals and Forget-Me-Nots, and adopting a certain theme which is carried throughout the semester.

The four officers and twelve representatives who are heads of the organization compose the Girls' League Council. This year the council consists of Doris Collins, president; Audrey Hermann, vice-president; Dorothy Madsen, secretary; and Miriam Cowie, treasurer. Chairwomen of the special committees are Rosemary Baumhofer, Marge Brack, Betty Buehler, Mary Hope, Jeanette Budden, and Ruth Seeger. Class representatives are Carol Macoubrey, Janet Hohman, Joyce Raiter, Charlotte Robertson and Jean Sudor.

Curtain!

One of the smallest yet most active and important groups at Central is the Stage Force. Its help in the production of plays, revues, and assemblies is invaluable. The boys take care of lights, sets, stage properties, and sound equipment, and they pride themselves in operating efficiently whether it be a class play or an ordinary assembly.

The group, under the direction of Miss Marjorie Dornberg, has Roger Deppe as manager. His assistants are: Ralph Labbitt, assistant manager; Jack de Lambert, electrician; Bernard Craine, public address system; Bob Plum, spotlight; Art Carlson and Richard Polister, carpenters; while property men are Jim Kleason, Magnus Hanson, Frank Schaffhausen, Myles Aikin, and Gordon Ferguson. Phil Grossman acts as artist for the group.

Central High School's Wardrobe Committee is composed of six girls whose duty it is to have charge of all the properties and costumes belonging to the school's wardrobe. They assist with all assemblies that need costumes, distributing them, putting them away, and also seeing that they are kept clean and mended. They help in stage productions by having charge of properties, costumes of actors, and general needs to insure the success of Central's performances.

This year the girls have arranged all costumes in order and filed them so that they can easily be reached. The most important activities of the wardrobe committee this year have been taking charge of the Christmas assembly, the Times' Revue, the Dramatic Club Play, and other assemblies. Miss Marjorie Dornberg is the advisor, and Jean Sudor is the chairman of the Wardrobe Committee. The other members are Mary Valleau, Sally Abernethy, Gloria Trantanella, Marjorie Polanek, Mary Holland, and Evelyn Storberg.

Third row: Lottie Marie Fielder, Nora Eastman, Ilene Christgau, Arvilla Deutschlander, Ruth Ann Ficken, Verna Berry, Phyllis Aasgaard, Catharine Smith.

Fourth row: Josephine Williams, Phyllis Lawrence, Marilyn Dean, George Wiessner, Dick Harholdt, Bobb M. Doherty, Harriet Randolph, Elaine Sullivan.

Tri-Sigma

The Tri-Sigmas have become an indispensable organization to students of Central. Each member voluntarily contributes one period a day in helping supply books for the students. Before becoming a member of Tri-Sigma, a pupil must work in the library for one semester.

Being a Tri-Sigma is a valuable asset to the member as it renders valuable training and experience in library work such as discovering reference work, learning a more extensive use of a card catalog, and becoming acquainted with books in general.

There are only two meetings held during the year, and these are social meetings consisting of a Christmas party and a picnic in June.

The officers are: Mary Louise Townsend, president; Delores Furchner, vice-president; Viola Bellis, secretary; and Barbara Bennet, treasurer.

Second row: Howard Guthman, John Stumpf, Hillard Brown, Hyam Segell, Miles Olson, Steve Hise.

Debaters

Girls' Debate Club members, as the name implies, have succumbed to that age-old human weakness, love of an argument. In an entirely friendly manner they have argued the affirmative and negative of contemporary problems.

During the first semester the club discussed debating rules and technique. Highlight of the season was a debate with the boys' club on the isolation question.

Officers of the club elected for the first term were: Janet Pearson, president; Betty Peterson, vice-president; Caroline Streich, secretary; and Patricia Leinenkugel, treasurer. For the present term, Betty Peterson is president; Phyllis Rode, vice-president; Patty Leinenkugel, secretary; and Beatrice Lawhead, treasurer.

The Boys' Debate Club is one of the most active clubs at Central. Its members participate in debates and discussions at the meetings, and debates are sometimes held with the Girls' Debate Club. Challenges from Cretin and North High were received this year. The debating team is composed of Hyam Segell, Jim Creech, Dean Ramstad, and Steve Hise.

The theme for all high school debating clubs this year, as decided by a national committee, is "Government Control of Railroads."

Officers of the club for the year were Dean Ramstad, president; Jim Creech, vice-president; Stewart Nelson, secretary; and Knute Stalland, treasurer.

Radio Club

Second row: Philip Johnson, Warren Herman, Dick Schroeder, Fred Grahome, Robert Nielsen, Bill Moffet.

Radio Club

The Radio Club was first organized at Central in 1918 under the guidance of Mr. Clarence Eastman for the benefit of experimenters, short wave listeners, and just plain amateurs. Today the club is proud to admit there are also three licensed amateur radio operators in its midst besides these other groups.

Amateur radio is open to any citizen of the U. S. without a charge of any kind. In the majority of the countries of the world, radio amateurs have been forced to cease operations because of the present conflict. The freedom of the radio amateur in America today exemplifies our belief in equality and freedom of speech.

There are approximately 50,000 licensed amateurs, or hams, as they are termed in this country today, and Central is proud to possess a few of them.

Membership in the Radio Club is open to anybody interested in radio who can pass the test given by the club. It is run for the benefit of radio fans, and questions and discussions are in order for their meetings. In previous years social activities were a common function of the club; however, these activities have been eliminated and at present, time has been devoted entirely to the study of radio.

Officers this year for the Radio Club are: Jim Kleason (W9ZGI), president; Al Stein (W9LFY), vice-president; Earl Grindheim, treasurer; and Phil Bassivich, secretary.

Fourth row: Jeanette English, Fern Kaye Boeye, Doris Hansen, Caroline Halpern, Therese Frozina, Janice Bodine, Peggy Wulf.

On Guard

To increase their knowledge of fencing and to develop the poise which this sport affords are perhaps some of the reasons so many girls join this organization. Miss Emma V. Ryan of the department of athletics is the advisor of this club known as Masque and Foil. You can't fool the girls on their feints, thrusts, and parries after their weekly lesson with Mr. Ferdinand Uebel, the instructor. Plans are being made to hold matches between the various high schools. The officers for the year are: Helen Wigginton, president; Dorothy Schroeder, vice-president; Marion English, secretary; and Betty Clymer, treasurer.

The boys' fencing club or Guardsmen as it is called has not been very active this year due to the lack of practice space. However, Jack Gustad and Bob Pfaff have carried on the tradition of this club under the direction of Mr. Ferdinand Uebel. Jack came in fourth in the Northwest Fencing Tournament, and both boys entered the state fencing tournament in April.

Third row: Irwin Weinstein, Dick DeLeo, Sidney Esensten, Mel Mark, Glenn Burges, Art Kaufman.

Chess Club

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Brockman, the Chess Club was organized in 1922. Interest in the game has increased with the years, and the club has produced many outstanding players who have participated in Twin City Tournaments and state contests.

To qualify for membership, the student must pass a written examination on terms and phrases familiar to the game. Included in this test are also problems which the aspiring members must solve.

Active members may play anytime after sixth period in Room 209 or during their study periods.

The first term Bob Tarbox was elected president, Barton Levy, vice-president, Dave York, secretary, and Mort Barron, treasurer. Stan Simon succeeded to the presidency in February and Hyam Segall, Pete Stallings, and Stewart Nelson took over their respective offices.

Aeronautics Club

This club was formed in the fall of 1933 by a group of five boys interested in furthering and bettering their knowledge in airplane model building and in other phases of aviation. Mr. L. H. Harnsberger, because of his deep interest in aeronautics, was chosen as club advisor.

Since the formation of the club, it has engaged in many interesting activities, such as the building of a glider, inspection tours to nearby airports, talks by well-known aviation authorities, and model contests with competing enthusiasts. Annually the club enters a number of members in the rubber and gas model contest at Fort Snelling. Many of these contestants have won high honors.

In 1937, because of increase in its social activities, girls were admitted to the club. Officers for the year are the following: Myles Aiken, president; Donald Coles, vice-president; and Lucille Luck, secretary-treasurer.

Fourth row: Bill Lebra, John Stumpf, Harland Olson, Bill Debus, John Becker, Bill Angell, Warner Ogden.

Rifle Club

Participating in the National Bi-Weekly matches in which the club competes with about 200 other schools in the U. S., is the most important activity of the Rifle Club. There are four matches in the first series and six in the second. The club has a "C" rating this year. The five highest members on a team of ten determine the standing of the club. The Rifle Club carries on postal matches with clubs of other Saint Paul schools that are of about the same rank. Some individual members of the club are working for qualifications in the National Rifle Association which start with pro-marksman and go through distinguished.

The officers for the first term were Jim Rush, president; Bob Baker, vice-president; and Ron Powers, secretary. During the second term the officers were Evelyn Storberg, president; Bob Baker, vice-president; and Ron Powers, secretary. Mr. Bush, the advisor, acted as treasurer both terms.

Schuss Stars

Such words as slalom, Christiania, and telemark probably mean little to the uninitiated, but to Frank Galles and his hundred ski fanatics they are synonymous with thrills, spills, and fun. This year the Ski Club, among other things, came out victorious in a three-way meet with Wilson and Murray, held an all-afternoon event at Moon Valley, and made several trips to the New Brighton "Alps." During that part of the year when snow is scarce, the club sponsors pow-wows and other social events. The club is unusual in that all of its one hundred members are ardent fans. Largely responsible for this fine spirit are the officers, Don Shannon, president; Mike Barton, vice-president; Mary Valleau, secretary.

GIRLS GETTING AWARDS

Fourth row: Eileen Dolan, Lorraine Herbst, Ann Norton, Geraldine Murray, E. V. Ryan, Ruth Marino, Anna M. Dickson, Marilyn Druck, Marguerite Kampmeyer, Phyllis Aasgaard.

Girls' "C" Club

The present Girls' "C" Club was formed in 1927. Eighteen years before that time girls who had graduated and were interested in girls' athletics met every Christmas at the Y. W. C. A. At that time girls' athletics at Central were not organized, and "C's" were not given. When it was decided to give "C's" the girls receiving them were included in the membership of this organization.

In 1933 the club became affiliated with the Women's Division of the National Amateur Athletic Federation whose primary aim is to safeguard and encourage girls' athletics.

If a girl joins G. A. A. when a freshman, she must earn 1,000 points in order to get her "C." If she joins G. A. A. when a sophomore, she must earn 750 points, and an additional 500 points entitles her to an "All-City" award. Members of the Girls' Athletic Association earn points by recording time spent playing outdoor and indoor sports and also for attending G. A. A. classes.

There are three important social activities each year which are planned by the club for its members. They are the annual business meeting, the card party, and the spring banquet. At the business meeting officers are elected for the coming year, and plans for the banquet are discussed. Officers for 1940 are: Ruth Marino, president; Georgianna Smolik, vice-president; Pearle Wiechmann, secretary; and Frances Casey, treasurer. The "C's" and "All-City" awards are presented to the girls at the banquet.

Second row: Jane Halvorson, Helen Wigginton, Marion English, Cecil Friedman, Janice Bodine, Betty Jane Smith.

G. A. A. Executive Board

"There will be an Executive Board meeting, 6th period, today in the teachers' lunch room." This notice is received by eighteen girls on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. The Executive board is the governing body of the Girls' Athletic Association, and officers and heads of various sports meet with Miss Ryan to discuss team tryouts, G. A. A. parties, indoor and outdoor activities and any other matters concerning girls' sports.

Each spring an election is held to choose members for the new board. The girls are nominated by the retiring board and voted upon by all the girls in the G. A. A. classes. The present G. A. A. officers are: Pearle Wiechmann, president; Shirley Norquist, vice-president; Mary Beyrer, secretary-treasurer; and Phyllis Rode, recording secretary.

Besides the officers, heads are chosen for the major sports: fieldball, basketball, volleyball, and tennis, and for the outside sports: skiing, tobogganing, swimming, bicycling, skating, and hiking. Other sports come under the miscellaneous sports head. Three other board members are the publicity head, girls' sports editor of the "Times," and a newly-formed position, social head.

This year the board has had several parties for their members. These were a "potluck" dinner, a party at which they attended the Choir Concert, and a "progressive" dinner.

Each girl on the board receives 25 points toward either of her letters.

Referees

Second row: Irene Hasenzahl, Jane Halvorson, Beatrice Lawhead, Irma Widmer, Evelyn Boone, Betty McArdle, Pearle Wiechmann, Betty Jane Smith.

Third row: Jeanette English, Betty Hoelscher, Barbara Bennett, Ilene Christgau, Shirley Trantanella, Helen Wigginton, Marion English, Cecil Friedman.

Fourth row: Marilyn Druck, Lorraine Herbst, Mary Cox, Marguerite Kampmeyer, Geraldine Murray, Lenore Wendt, Dorothy Schroeder.

Referees

"There will be a referee meeting today, 6th period, in the gym. Please be in uniform."

Thirty-one girls listen to this notice every Thursday. At these weekly meetings with Miss Emma V. Ryan, gym instructor, they learn the rules of the games played in the gym and G. A. A. classes, such as volleyball and basketball, take tests on the rules they learn, and are criticized on their work by their fellow referees.

Once each week these girls help Miss Ryan in the gym and G. A. A. classes. Here they take attendance, help with the exercises and class routine, and referee the fieldball, basketball, volleyball, and kittenball games.

At the beginning of each semester Miss Ryan chooses those girls who have previously shown interest and have indicated their desire to referee. The girls are required to hand in notebooks and to attend the referee meeting each Thursday in order to receive their points toward either their "C" or "All-City" award.

With the Executive Board the referees usually have a spring outing, entertainment, or, as last year, an overnight trip to Camp Ojiketa to climax their activities.

Basketball

The whistle blows! The ball is tossed! And the game is off to a flying start.

November is the month in which basketball begins its reign of supremacy. From November to January members of the G. A. A. play basketball each Friday during their G. A. A. classes during which they learn the correct methods of passing, pivoting and juggling. By doing this they receive seventy-five points toward an award.

In January final teams are chosen by a group of judges who are selected by the basketball head, Helen Wigginton, and approved by the G. A. A. Executive Board. Each of the senior, junior and sophomore teams elect their own captains. Mary Cox was selected the senior captain, Marjorie Dawson captained the juniors, and Jeanne Johnson led the sophomores.

By meeting the juniors in the first of the games and defeating them 15-8, the seniors earned the right to meet the sophomore team for the 1940 basketball championship. The senior sextet emerged victorious from this tilt only after a well-fought battle with stubborn sophomore six.

Fieldball

At the beginning of the fall term each year Central G. A. A.'ers start their year's activities by playing Fieldball, one of the fastest and most exciting of the major G. A. A. sports.

Fieldball is played by two teams of eleven players each. An official team is made up of five forwards, three halfbacks, two fullbacks and a goal guard. The object of the game is to make as many points as possible by passing the ball through a goal. It is a combination of basketball and soccer. Although it has many points in common with soccer, it is more strenuous as the playing is more continuous. The progress in the ball is made by kicking while in fieldball the ball is thrown.

Under the direction of Phyllis Tayler, fieldball head, tryouts were held October 27 and senior, junior, and sophomore teams were picked. Helen Wigginton was elected the senior captain, the juniors were headed by Shirley Norquist, and Patricia Hackert led the sophomores.

In the playoff series the seniors first played the juniors, defeating them by an 8-5 count. In the final game the senior eleven met the sophomores, who won the game in the last few minutes of play by a 6-5 score. Special honors were awarded the victorious sophomores.

Volleyball and Tumbling

During the first half of the spring term volleyball and tumbling are the major G. A. A. sports.

Volleyball is a sport that requires skill, fast thinking, and ability to cooperate. Jeanette English was the G. A. A. Executive Board member in charge of the team tryouts. In the G. A. A. classes the captains elected were Jeanne Johnson, Helen Wigginton, Eileen Dolan, Dorothy Schroeder, Mary Beyrer, and Irene Hasenzahl. Tryouts were held in the early part of April and the sophomore, junior, and senior teams were picked.

Those taking tumbling turn their thoughts to forward and backward rolls, headstands, cartwheels, and handstands. The girls are instructed in the fundamentals and gradually advance to a difficult routine. Those who can pass this required routine comprise the tumbling squad, which is picked by a committee of judges from the Executive Board.

Athletic Board

One of the most important organizations in the school, but probably the one given the least recognition is the Athletic Board. The Board directs all student athletics and handles the financial end of all athletic activities.

Officers of the organization are Al Buser, president; Jack McCallum, vice-president and treasurer; Albert Meier, secretary; and James E. Marshall, ex-officio officer.

The board is made up by members of the faculty, who manage and direct athletics. Members and their activities are: Jack McCallum, manager and director of all sports; Al Buser, football; Stanley Watson, baseball; R. D. Berg, swimming and golf; Frank Galles, track and gym; Al Schwabe, custodian; and Jack McCallum, tennis.

Another activity of the Board is to check and issue letters for participation in athletics.

Central carries the heaviest athletic program of the city high schools, and all sports at Central are supported by the school fund as absolutely no financial aid is given by the city for athletics. Therefore, the Athletic Board must budget all athletic activities, and they are to be congratulated on a splendid job. Due to the fact that all sports except football and basketball are non-spectator, all other sports have to depend upon these for financial support. The brunt of this burden is carried by football, and in years of scanty gate receipts the Board has to do a lot of stretching.

Football

On August 26, the 1939 Central football season was officially opened when seventy-five aspirants reported to Coach Reed. In this group were five returning lettermen from the 1938 football squad.

The first game with the Red and Gray from Marshall ended in a discouraging 0-0 tie. The team then traveled to Faribault and lost a heartbreaker, 13-0.

The Colonials opened their conference season with a 26-0 drubbing by Harding. The following week Coach Playford Reed brought his Red and Black warriors against Washington, the Twin Cities' championship team for the past few years. The score was 12-7 at half time, and it appeared as though the Colonials had begun to click, but the Presidents came back in the second half with an avalanche of touchdowns, the final score being 44-7 in favor of Washington.

The next game was against the traditional rival, Mechanic Arts. Central after outplaying Mechanics the whole game lost when the downtown school scored two quick touchdowns in the closing minutes and defeated Central 12-0. This was a rough and tumble game with plenty of give and take. Against Johnson Central ran the opening kick-off back for a touchdown, only to have it called back, and Central, disheartened, lost this encounter 19-0. Fourteen Central seniors played in their final prep football game against Humboldt. No more can be said but that Central lost again to the tune of 38-0.

Coach Playford Reed and assistant Coach, Ted Wojcik, felt these losses as keenly as the players, and much credit should go to both coaches for trying to produce a winning team, as well as to the players who worked against odds.

Glances at the Players

Howard Schultz (Howie), Senior, height 6 ft. 5 in., weight 176 pounds, total points 178. Primarily a team player, big Howie was the leading scorer in the conference, All-City center, considered the outstanding prep star of the city, and was elected captain.

Donald Lawson (Don), Senior, height 6 ft. 1 in., weight 155 pounds, total points 145. Don cannot be beat for finesse on the hardwood court. A strong offensive forward, he is probably the deadest shot on the team.

Robert Carter (Bob), Senior, height 6 ft. 1 in., weight 195 pounds, total points 66. Big and rangy burly Bob could not be beat under the basket. Bob liked the going rough and had the fight and the spark that wins games.

Bill Dillon (Pinky), Senior, height 6 ft., weight 170 pounds, total points 55. A great guard and a hard worker Bill was good enough to win a position on the All-City team.

Harold Tvedt ("T"), Senior, height 5 ft. 11 in., weight 145 pounds, total points 53. A smooth ball handler, a ballhawk, and surefire on the defense, "T" was a stellar performer.

Miles Wangensteen (Wang), Senior, height 5 ft. 7 in., weight 143 pounds, total points 35. Wang was a consistent performer all season. He set up the plays and was a standout on defense.

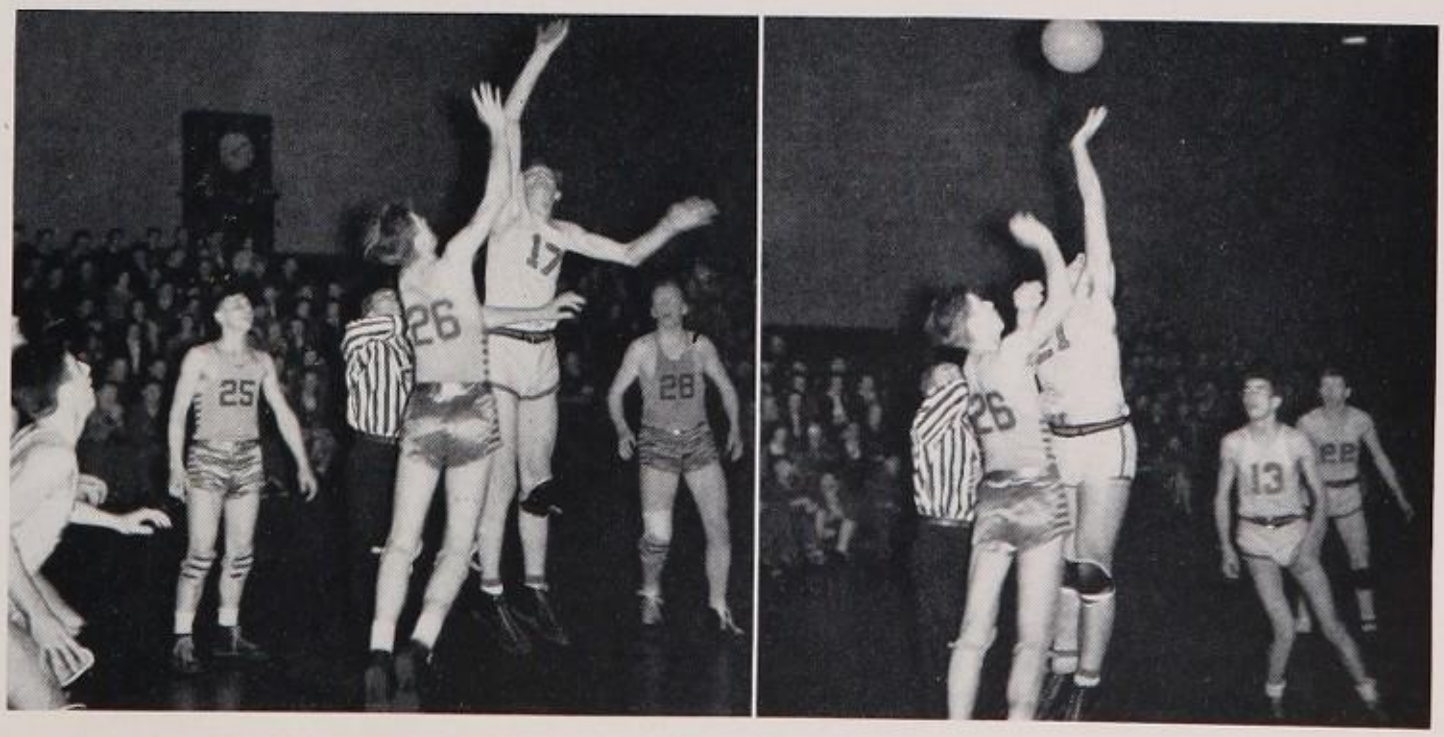
TIP-OFF



Basketball

Seeking its third straight city and Twin City title since the inauguration of Coach John Riordan's tutelage in 1937, the Minutemen opened the season with a pre-conference victory over U. High 30-27 in an overtime game. During the Christmas holidays, the Colonials stepped down to Eau Claire and downed the Dairyland boys 31-26. North St. Paul fell next 41-13, as did Hastings 34-15. Then, in a rough game, the Cretin Raiders upset the Red and Black 18-22.

Opening the race for the city title in the new enlarged ten-team conference, the defending champions had a four game winning streak downing Monroe 29-15, Johnson 34-21, Murray 30-23, and Humboldt 36-19, consecutively. The turn of the semester seemed to catch the boys in a slump, for they came out on the short end of two unimportant non-conference games, losing to De la Salle 17-24, and North St. Paul 25-27. In the all-important game with Harding, which decided the title, Central lost a heartbreaker 26-27. The Lexington lads bounced back into the picture by defeating Mechanics 26-19, but the next week Washington handed Central its second defeat 17-24, putting the Colonials in second position, where it finished the season by trouncing Marshall 21-14, Cretin 21-16, and Wilson 46-30.

In the Twin City game with Minneapolis Edison for the second place title, Central lost by one point, 32-33.

As usual, the majority of the work was laid on the shoulders of six players, all of whom deserve praise for keeping the established tradition of fine Red and Black aggregations. Captain Howie Schultz and Bill Dillon deserve special recognition for being selected on the all-city team, but we should not forget Hal Tvedt, Miles Wangensteen, Don Lawson, and Bob Carter, who aided in putting them there.

STRATEGY WINS THE GAME

Third row: Roland Thomssen, Eugene Erickson, James Maher, Glenn Burgess, Fred Debel, John Gustad, Ralph Walter, William P. Behrens.

Swimming

Central turned in its twelfth year of swimming with a fourth place in the all-city finals, after being nosed out of third place by St. Thomas on the count of one point. Roland Thomssen holds the honors for high point man, with Captain Raymond Jacobsen and Bud Elvgren tying for the second high honor, and Ed Maurer a close third.

In the past the Central swimmers have held All-City Championships for as many as six consecutive years. The years 1927-1933 inclusive were their best, during which time they maintained supremacy over the entire city. In 1927 Central's swimming team included Lowell Marsh, who captured national honors with the back stroke.

Mr. Robert D. Berg has coached Central's swimming and water polo teams for the past twelve years, and again this year he showed his consistent ability to turn out a sportsman-like team if not a winning one.

This year's water polo team consisted of Bill Behrens, Don Christensen, Bud Elvgren, Eugene Erickson, Jack Gustad, Jim Maher, Ed Maurer, Ed Van Cleve, Roland Thommsen, Dave Gustafson, and Captain Ray Jacobson. The team turned in a fairly successful season, winning six out of eight games, two of which were forfeits.

WHERE ARE YOUR WATER WINGS?

Second row: Paul Boog, John Knighton, John Barton, Cliff Polski, Bill Prescott, Jack Brandt, Gordon Deppe, Paul Samuels.

Hockey Team

Second Row: Bob Gerber, Bob Trussell, Jack Kirby, Jack de Lambert, Fred Rosen, Bill Olson, Bill O'Brien, John Riordan, Roger Deppe, Dave Burns.

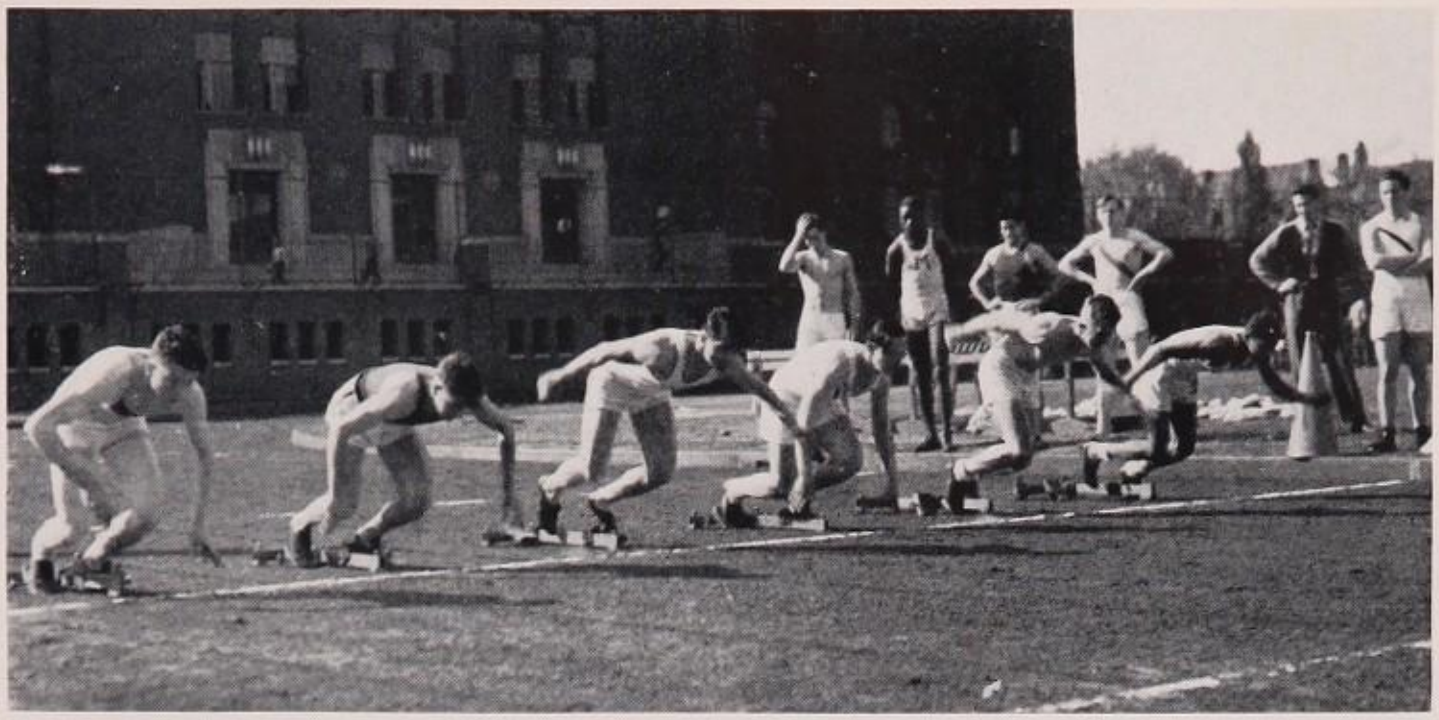
Gym-Hockey

Through a combination of superb team spirit, cooperation, excellent material, and careful coaching, the Central High gym team completed a highly successful season. Running true to form Central ran rip-shod over its opponents but due to the absence of several of its members in the City Meet, the Minutemen were forced to take second place, losing to Johnson by a fraction of a point. The Minutemen, however, proved their superiority by placing third in the state meet, surpassing Johnson by well over a hundred points. Ken Fennesy's brilliant performance on the horizontal bar won a first for Central.

The Minutemen were a well-balanced all around team, being especially strong on the high bar. A fine team like this asserting Central's superiority over other schools is only possible through the energetic and brilliant coaching of Coach Frank Galles, who can keep step with any of his boys.

Central's hockey team, under the tutelage of their new coach, Ted Wojcik, had a mediocre season. Although lacking victories, there was certainly no lack of fight on the part of the team. This was shown by many outstanding individual performances throughout the season as exemplified by Paul Feist's stellar performance in the Harding game.

The job of regular goalie was a tough choice as there were three men who alternated at this position during the season. The last month saw the Colonials making a creditable showing by walking off the ice with a majority of victories.



ON YOUR MARK; GET SET; GO!

Track

Central's track team captained by Bob Leach and coached by Frank Galles had one of its most successful seasons in 1939. Wet weather at the start of the season hampered the squad, but once the Minutemen started rolling they were invincible. With Dick Giedel running the 440 and Bob Hansen running the 880 along with Steve Hise in the pole vault and Bob Leach in the high jump taking firsts, Central defeated a majority of their opponents.

Washington was the first victim to fall before the onslaught of the cindermen. Johnson was the next team to feel the sting of defeat at the hands of Central with Harding following close behind. This was the first year that Monroe, Marshall, Wilson, and Murray had entered into competition with the senior highs, but the Central tracksters found little trouble in conquering them.

The Minutemen took their share of places in the city meet but fell just short of a victory.

WHERE'S THE PUCK?

Baseball Team

Third row: Gust Pappas, Larry Bentson, Quentin Mason, Dave Gustafson, Bill Cook, Keith Hall.

Baseball

Under the tutorship of Coach Playford Reed, Central's 1939 baseball aggregation provided stiff competition for the several teams in the conference. However, due to several bad breaks, the Minutemen were forced to share third place honors with Harding.

The games which probably provided the most interest to Central students from a standpoint of rivalry were the two with Mechanics. Last year the two game series was dropped by the scores of 8-7 and 9-7. Due to the tension among the players, errors were rather numerous.

The hardest fought contest of the season was the Humboldt game, which turned into a pitchers' duel between Kramer, one of the Minutemen mainstays, and Andersen of Humboldt. Central's Colonials finally pulled the game out of the fire and won by a score of 5-4.

Three of the Central standouts who placed on the City Team were Pete Kramer, Howie Schultz of first base, a leading hitter, and Bob Schaff, an outfielder and a smart base runner.

Golf-Tennis

Led by Captain Bob Lawrence, Central proved to be a threat for the City Championship by finishing second to Johnson. Central's play was steadied by such men as Bill Regan, Louis Lick, and John Goff.

In the City Tournament the Colonials uncovered a potential star in Gordon Isaacs, who, in a blinding rain storm, shot a brilliant 74. Next year's team led by returning letter-man, Louis Lick, who has developed steadily, should be a strong contender for the title.

The Central tennis team under the coaching of John Harp, climaxed a most successful season by winning the city tournament. The co-captains, Joe Armstrong and Melvin Mark, went to the finals. Besides winning the city tournament, Armstrong won the Northwest Interscholastic Tournament. Through the play of Don Johnson, Stanley Simon, Bud Gaertner, Bert Ames, Thad Baker, and the two co-captains, Central was awarded a beautiful trophy symbolic of the victorious team in the city tournament.

In pre-tournament competition Thad Baker showed promise by winning the school tournament. The Red and Black defeated Washington twice, 5 to 0 and 4 to 1. U-High of Minneapolis was drubbed 5 to 0. In the toughest match of the season, Central was downed by Johnson 3 to 2.

WHAT BUT PRINTING IS THE VOICE OF TODAY

AND THE RECORD OF TOMORROW?

Printing, the most influential of all the arts, is so because it heralds the things of tomorrow, and echoes the things of yesterday. Printing cries the sorrows and joys of every hour. It speaks to people of every kind and makes their hearts beat with tenderness or drives them on to war. The Printing Press sends knowledge abroad as Nature sends the rain. One nourishes the soil while the other enriches man's intelligence. In five or ten or fifty years from now, when memories have faded, and many things are forgotten, this printing will bring back fresh and new, the hours you spent in school for preparation for what we hope will be a full measure of success in the future.

Dear Mary,

As I sit here with my hair down trying to write something that you will be able to read and you telling me what a beautiful gal you are I want you to know I really enjoyed meeting you & having you as a friend & I hope our friendship will continue.

Lots of Luck

Betty Macgaren

Dear Mary,

You are a "swell" girl, Mary.
I've known you fer a long time.
Luck, success and happiness.

Dear Mary,
Hi there old top!
How're you? I have just two pages
the finishing touch
to go.
Love,
Arlene Cotsoon

Dear Mary - I certainly hope you get the scholarship at Long Jr. College you wanted, but Jr. for myself
I'm going to go to Business College because I always wanted to take your course. I like it very much but I think I'd like well - give me anyhow - a secretarial course where I could learn shorthand & typing. Oh, I almost forgot to say that I was urged me to stay away from business college after all. I have my wish after all. I I deserve a real think I deserve a prize for this!

Sincerely
Joanne M. Barie.

Dear Mary,
I don't know
you very well but I can see like a swell kid. I wish you a lot of luck.
Mary Hill Dyne
Tony.
